— July 8, 2014

No fewer than three people including a pregnant woman on Monday lost their lives in a ghastly motor accident while six others sustained injuries along Ibadan-Ife road.

The accident which involved three vehicles, occurred at New Iyana Agbala junction in Egbeda Local Government Area of Oyo State around 7.15am.

The Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC) Egbeda Unit Commander, Abiodun Akinlade, who confirmed the incident, said the victims died before any medical attention could reach them.

Describing the accident as multiple, Akinlade gave the particulars of the vehicles involved as Micra with registration number YNF 963 AA, a Toyota Siena with registration number XD 451 KAK and Volkswagen FST 452 BH.

He added that the long vehicle that caused the accident did not stop.

He explained that it was the long vehicle that hit the commercial Micra before hitting other vehicles.

According to him, the pregnant woman was about crossing the road when she was hit by one of the vehicles.
