Armed men numbering about six at the weekend attacked a new generation bank located inside the University of Nigeria, Enugu Campus, UNEC, killing two police men.

A source told LEADERSHIP that the dare-devil men, carted away millions of naira from the bank's ATM after their operation.

It was gathered that the heavily armed robbers were aided by the heavy downpour that occurred on Friday night.

Our correspondent further learnt that a lady who was in the company of a security guard at the bank was shot dead.

"The robbers came in the middle of the night and shot the two policemen without resistance. One of them died on the spot, while the second policeman died on the way to hospital.

"After that, they ordered the other guards into the security room and tied them together. With this, they operated without hitch and succeeded in removing the three ATMs.

"We also learnt that a girl friend of one of the security men was equally shot. I wonder what the girl was doing there in the middle of the night. They are believed to be the same behind the same attack on a nearby bank one month ago", the source added.

The public relations officer of the Enugu State Police Command, Ebere Amaraizu, DSP, when contacted, advised residents of the state to remain calm.
