Tragedy struck in Alifikede near Agbor, Delta State, when a snake charmer was reportedly attacked by his snake.

The snake attacked the magician after he used life snakes to showcase his prepared charms against snake bites before a crowd of people.

Reports said that the magician, a 46- year- old tailor, who abandoned his profession, identified as Samson Ogbebor, has been using his magic wand to woo unsuspecting customers to purchase the prepared charms against snake bites.

While performing his magic, he usually displayed various sizes of snakes around his body.

Eye witness said that the snake attacked its owner after it was released by the magician, moments after performing his magic.

Expectedly, after the bite, the magician fell to the ground and was rushed by members of the public, who were at the scene, to a nearby hospital.

But he died before they got to the hospital.

Speaking to our correspondent, an elder in the community, who did not want his name in print, said what surprised people most was the way and manner the snake struck the magician after which he started vomiting before he was rushed to the hospital.

The old man said all the snakes disappeared after the bite adding that the situation has created fear of the unknown in the area.
