

While flagging-off a two-day sensitization programme organised for selected youths from Edo and Delta states, Odih charged the youths to be patriotic to their country by ensuring that its infrastructures are not from having the power plants and allied facilities functioning in full capacities across the country, he urged the youths to support government efforts at improving the well being of the people of their various states.

MURDER: Randy Pastor In Police Net

BY KOLA EKE-OGIUGO, Asaba

The police detectives in Asaba, Delta State, have arrested one Pastor Jossy for alleged murder.

It was gathered that the pastor, who presides over one of the popular Pentecostal churches in Asaba, had allegedly been sleeping with female members of his church.

He was also accused of defrauding the church to the tune of N700,000.00 before his arrest.

Police Public Relations Officer in the state, DSP Celestina Kalu, said the suspect was arrested right inside the church last Sunday before the congregation by police detectives after he attempted to escape.

She said that the suspect, upon interrogation, confessed to many of his atrocities, saying that he was misled by the holy spirit after he had tried his hands on many businesses that failed.

Kalu said that the suspect, through his fake deliverance, had destroyed many women's womb.

She said that the suspect is currently undergoing investigation and would be charged to court on completion of investigation.

L-R: Communication specialist, Nigeria Erosion Watershed Management Project (NEWMAP) Dr Thomas Adebayo; Federal Project Coordinator of NEWMAP Chikelo Nwaune and climate change specialist Enrielta Alhassan during NEWMAP's press briefing in Abuja. PHOTO BY OKEKE JANE