At least six persons were allegedly killed and five others injured as a result of an attack on Lamba Gyambar community in Wase local government area of Plateau State over the weekend.

LEADERSHIP gathered that the assailants attacked the community on Saturday around 11pm shooting sporadically and setting homes ablaze.

According to an eye witness, Ibrahim Idris, a resident of the community who spoke to our correspondent on phone, four persons were initially killed on Saturday while eight were injured.

He said out of the eight that were rushed to Dengi General Hospital in Kanam LGA, two died yesterday morning, bringing the casualty figure to six.

He said, "Two died of gun shot wounds this morning. The soldiers that were at the check point were removed on Friday and redeployed to Maiduguri, which is what our attackers took advantage of and attacked us."

The media and information officer of the special task force, Captain Ikedichi Iweha, confirmed that an incident of that nature occurred but could not confirm the casualty figure at the time of filing this report.

Meanwhile, it was a day of wailing for the people of Awikiti village in Gudu local government as six members of a particular family were feared dead as a result of contaminated food intake, locals confirmed.

While the villagers continued to narrate the story in very hushed tones, one of the villagers told LEADERSHIP that the mystery of the death of the six members of a family was too painful to bear.

The family members – four children and two women, were said to have died after the consumption of a food believed to have been contaminated.

Commenting on the incident, Gudu local government caretaker chairman, Alhaji Musa Usman Bachaka, said it was not just a heavy loss to the family and the village alone but to the entire local government and state in general.

Bachaka, who prayed Allah to grant the deceased eternal rest, also donated bags of rice and other food items to the bereaved family.

Similarly, the state government has condoled with the bereaved family through a delegation led by the commissioner for lands and housing, Alhaji Nasiru Aliyu Dantso.

Responding on behalf of the bereaved family, the village head of Awikiti, Alhaji Yahya Obandawaki expressed appreciation as the care and show of love demonstrated by the state government.

The state government's delegation further condoled with the family of Kutufare Village chief imam, Mallam Muhammadu Nagande who drown recently in Kutufare River.

The local government caretaker chairman donated N20,000 and two bags of rice and other grains to the family of the chief imam.
