An intending couple yesterday lost their lives in an auto crash at Mkpatak community in Essien Udim local government area of Akwa Ibom State.

An eyewitness said the couple were returning from a ceremony late in the evening on a commercial motorcycle popularly known as Alolok when the accident occurred.

According to the eyewitness, the rider of the motorcycle who was apparently drunk and at a top speed rammed into a broken-down truck parked by the road side.

The couple, he said, though not yet married, were engaged and living together as they had intended to get married soon.

The community was thrown into mourning when the news of the accident filtered in as sympathisers gathered at the scene of the crash lamenting the death of the couple.

The truck which caused the accident, according to one of the sympathisers, had been left for too long on the spot by the road side.

He said, the truck remained
