An Ilorin Magistrate Court has remanded a 20-year-old herdsman, Umoru Abubakar, for macheting a young man to death.

The suspect was arraigned by police on a one-count charge of culpable homicide contrary to section 221 of the penal code.

The Police First Information Report (FIR) stated that the case was transferred to the department of criminal investigation, state headquarters, Ilorin, for discreet investigation from Banni Police Station.

The FIR said on August 31, one Mohammed Usman of Fulani camp, Kosa village, reported that the suspect "criminally ambushed and attacked his son, Abdullahi Usman with cutlass and inflicted multiple machete cuts on his forehead, which caused his untimely death".

The police said investigation conducted at the department of criminal investigation revealed that the suspect "immediately you committed the devilish act, you took to your heels to Patigi and a search party was conducted and later got you arrested. You thereby committed the above mentioned offence. Meanwhile investigation is still in progress."

The prosecutor, David Wodi objected to the suspects' bail application.
