

day

ACCIDENT: Unidentified Man Killed By Hit-and-run Driver

BY MILLIE IBE, Abuja

An unidentified middle-aged man has been reportedly killed by a hit-and-run driver under Apo Bridge by Nnamdi Azikiwe Expressway, Abuja.

The man who was said to be crossing the road was knocked down by a saloon car at 12:30 pm. The driver of the vehicle immediately sped off.

The man died immediately on the spot, according to the two men that brought the picture of his lifeless body to our office, Michael Odetunde and Buliyan Salawu.

They said attempts to ascertain the identity of the man were futile, as he was said not to be carrying any identification item with him.

LEADERSHIP learnt that his corpse had been deposited at the National Hospital morgue by police authorities from Apo police station, waiting for identification by family members or friends.

ARREST: NSCDC Officials Arrested Over