An Ilorin Magistrate Court has remanded a housewife, Jumai Bamaïyi, at the federal prison, Oke-Kura, Ilorin, for allegedly striking her husband to death with a pestle.

The 30-year-old woman of Kamaji village, via Kalama, Kwara State, was said to have had a misunderstanding with her husband, Bamaïyi Aiki, as a result of which she hit him on the head with a pestle.

Police arrested the accused when on October 17, 2014, one Garuba Dauda of Kamaji village via Kalama, reported at Kalama Divisional Police station that the accused attacked her husband while he was sleeping in their room.

The Police First Information Report (FIR) stated that investigation conducted at the department of criminal investigation, Ilorin, revealed that the deceased died as a result of injuries inflicted on his head.

The prosecutor, Sergeant Zachaeus Folorunsho told the court that investigation into the matter was yet to be completed.

The judge, Mr. A. Bello ordered that the accused be remanded at the federal prison, Oke-Kura, Ilorin, pending the determination of investigation and adjourned the case till November 6, 2014 for further mention.
