contravenes the constitution of the party

It was learnt that instead of accepting to go to the ward the executives decided to call the police to disperse the aggrieved party members resulting in a shootout that made stray bullet to kill one person instantly and seriously injuring one other person who was rushed to Federal Medical Centre, Bida.

As at the time of filing this report sources hinted that the doctors have been battling since Saturday afternoon to remove the bullet, while the life of the injured victim was still hanging in the balance . It was learnt that no fewer than 10 persons have been arrested by the police in connection with the incident.

Confirming the incident the police public relations officer (PPRO) Niger State Command Ibrahim Abiodun Gambari said the cause of the death and the circumstances surrounding the incident is being investigated by men of the state criminal investigation department (SCID)

PDP Delegates' Election: 1 Killed, Another In Critical Condition In Niger

One person was killed and another injured in a shootout in Bida over the change of venue for the election of delegates by the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) members of Edozhigi in Gbako local government of Niger State.

Trouble started when it was gathered that the Edozhigi ward executives of the party moved the delegates election venue to Bida the zonal headquarters of Niger South.

Piqued by the development the aggrieved party men stormed the house of one of the executives in Bida insisting that the elections must hold in Edozhigi the ward head quarters as holding the election in Bida
