CULT CLASH: 2 Dead, 3 Nabbed

BY KOLA EKE-OGIUGO, Asaba

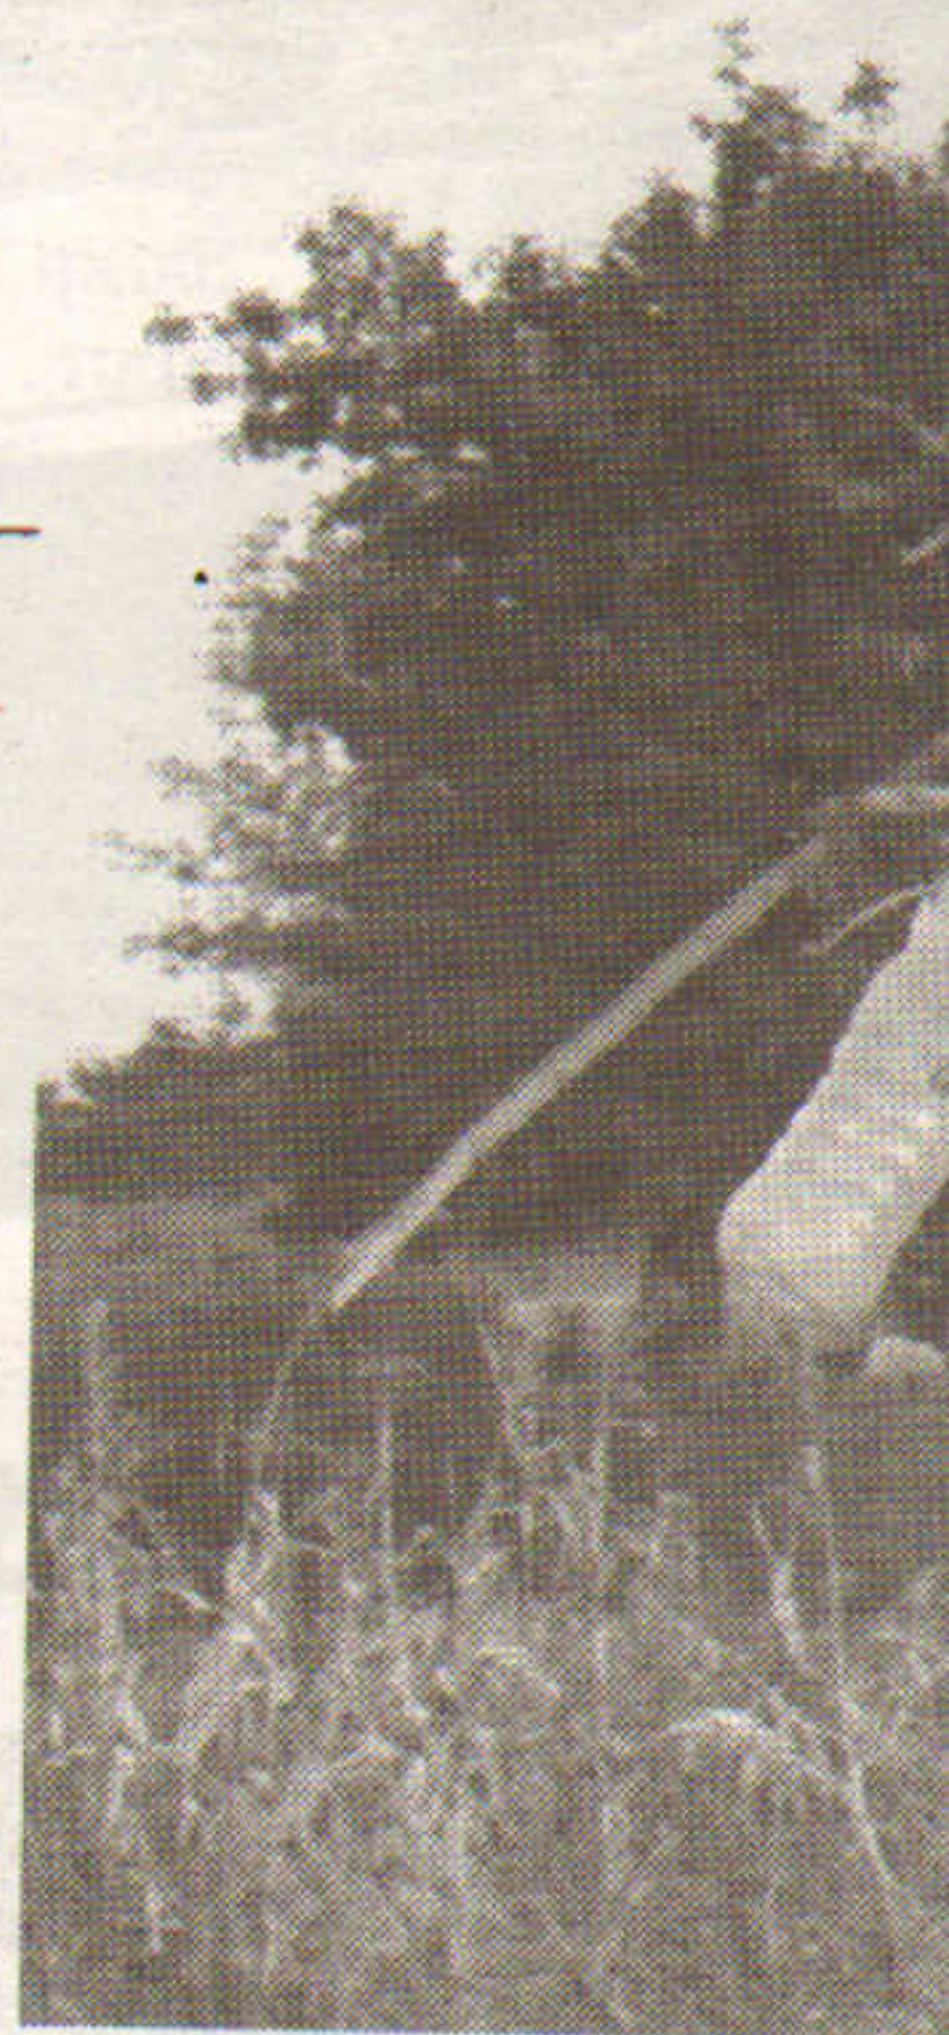

It was a bloody clash last Sunday in Boji Boji Owa, Ika North East Local Government Area of Delta State as two rival cult groups battled each other leaving two dead after the end of the siege that brought usual Sunday activities to a standstill.

It was gathered that the two were shot at different locations within the town by the same group of boys who were alleged to be parading the town with motorbikes searching for their perceived targets.

Investigation revealed that one of the boys shot, just returned to the town after he was alleged to have ran away after the protracted cult war that brought the town to its knees.

Meanwhile, residents of Morka and Convent streets that witnessed the midday madness, have called for total war on cultism and cult related activities within Boji Boji metropolis and its environs.

Confirming the incident, the police public relations officer in the state, DSP Celestina Kalu, said the investigation was ongoing, adding that the police have arrested three suspects currently helping it with further investigation.
