A major tragedy occurred yesterday in Kaduna when a Dangote trailer with a Jigawa registration number XA874GRK loaded with cement crushed a Police inspector to death with several others severely injured.

Meanwhile, a camera man Shehu Usman with the Kaduna State Television was also involved and broke his legs and ankle. He was among those rushed to the hospital.

The trailer which according to eye witnesses may have lost control as a result of possible brake failure, also destroyed over eight vehicles and no

Those injured whose figure was randomly put at about 10, where rushed to the hospital.

The inspector whose name some of his colleagues confirmed as Inspector Obed Ezra was among those drafted to maintain law and order at the All Progressives Congress (APC) governorship primary held at the Kaduna International trade fair complex yesterday.

The driver of the trailer was no where to be found as he was said to have abandoned the trailer and taken to his heels for fear of

When the story was being filed, the mangled body of the police inspector was still under the tyres of the trailer as efforts were being made to evacuate the body parts.

A victim who simply gave his name as Nahala whose motorcycle was among those motorcycles that were damaged told our correspondent who was at the scene of the accident that, "I was sitting on my motorcycle when all of sudden I saw the trailer coming in my direction crushing vehicles, so I hurriedly ran leaving my newly bought motorcycle which was crushed beyond repairs.

"Some women who came to sell food stuffs were among those who were injured in the accident," he said
