The police in Kokori community, Ethiope East Local Government Area of Delta State, have killed four kidnap suspects and two armed robbers.

They were said to have been terrorizing the community in recent times.

While residents of the community are currently jubilating following the killing of the suspects, the police public Relations officer in the state, DSP Celestina Kalu, confirmed that the suspects were killed at the weekend.

She disclosed that the police rounded them up on a tip-off, giving their names as; Skeboy James, Olokpa Ben Collins Kori and Ejiro Franklyn, adding that they were among the major terrorists in Kokori community in the last few years.

DSP Kalu explained that with the killing of the suspects, peace has returned to the community, deserted over frequent robberies.

Investigation revealed that Kokori community has been under siege of robbery operations in the last six months as its residents sleep with one eye open.

Also, DSP Kalu said over 20 suspected robbery kingpins have been arrested and charged to court.
