

DRESSES

Cute and fun for the New Year!

JUMIA

Shop Now

HOME / METRO / NEWS / KILLING: 3 POLICEMEN SHOT DEAD IN TARABA

KILLING: 3 Policemen Shot Dead In Taraba

Andrew Ojih

— Dec 25, 2014 | 0 Comments

Some gunmen suspected to be armed robbers on Monday killed three policemen in Taraba State.

The Police Public Relations Officer, Taraba State Command, ASP Joseph Kwaji, who confirmed the incident, said that the policemen were shot along Mayo Kam area of Bali local government area of the state.

He stressed that the three policemen were rushing to Mayo Kam where the armed robbers were robbing some motorists along the road.

"Our men got a call that armed robbers were robbing motorists along Mayo Kam village and while rushing to that place, few of the armed robbers who were hiding, ambushed three of our men, including the officer in charge of Mayo Kam and the Police Mobile Patrol team leader who were on patrol along Bali-Mayo Kam road in Bali local government area of the state" he said.

He noted that three of the policemen died on the spot while the robbers went away with their rifles.

According to him, the armed robbers killed an ASP, inspector and a sergeant in the Taraba State Command of the Nigerian Police.

75 Shares

Facebook 50

Twitter 23

Google+ 2

« Previous Article

OIL THEFT: JTF Arrests 14 Persons, 53 Vessels
In N/Delta

Next Article »

Christmas Celebration: Vehicular Movement
Restricted In Suleja