

sto

ACCIDENT: Tragedy As Family Of 4 Perish In Car Crash

BY SAM EGWU, Lokoja

It was tears, sorrow and wailing at Efachipu, Imane in Olamaboro Local Government Area of Kogi State, yesterday, as a family of four, killed in an auto crash on Olamaboro -Enugu road were buried.

Mr Titus, two of his children and a cousin who were traveling in a Sports Utility Vehicle, (SUV) conveying seven persons collided with another Jeep from the opposite direction.

In the tragedy that ensued, the 35-year-old father of three, two children and a cousin lost their lives which an eye-witness, said it occurred when the Jeep, coming from the opposite direction was trying to avoid a failed portion of the road, lost control and collided with the other.

While the wife escaped death with compound fracture, the husband, the two children and the cousin were not lucky, as they died on the spot.

LEADERSHIP gathered that the injured were taken to Enugu, Enugu State, and are receiving treatment at the National Orthopedic Hospital.