An auto-crash involving a red Peugeot 406 with registration number, FT 987 ABC and a 'trailer' with registration number XR 516 GME, along the busy Airport Road, Abuja, has killed one person and left three others injured.

Though the cause of the accident could not be ascertained, LEADERSHIP FRIDAY understands that the Peugeot ran into the rear of the truck belonging to the Dangote Cement Company - which was coming from Obajana, Kogi State.

The corpse of the victim was still lying by the road-side, covered with leaves from nearby trees, at the time this reporter visited the spot.

A senior officer of the Vehicle Inspection Office Driver and Vehicle Licensing Administration (VIO-DVLA), Lugbe, who pleaded anonymity, disclosed that one person died on the spot while the three injured victims were taken to the Federal Staff Hospital, Airport Road, for treatment.
