

BIZARRE: Police Intercept Truck With Fresh Human Head

BY MOHAMMED ISMAIL, Yola

The police and vigilante group in Adamawa State have intercepted a truck carrying fresh human head concealed in a bag near Modibbo Adama University of Technology, yesterday.

Confirming the incident, the state police spokesman, DSP. Othman Abubakar said that the truck was intercepted by the police at a checkpoint close to the Modibbo Adama University of Technology (MAUTECH), Yola.

An eyewitness account said the truck was coming from Mubi axis into the state capital when the police, manning the check point intercepted it.

"I saw a fresh human head dripping blood when it was discovered by the police," an eyewitness, Malam Kalla said.

He added that on interrogation, the truck driver said he loaded it with bags of grains.

Kalla said he was at the scene when the police at the check point stopped the driver of the truck and searched it but surprisingly, a human head with fresh blood was discovered inside one of the bags in the truck," he said.

However, DSP Othman confirmed that a truck was intercepted by their men at the checkpoint carrying human head and was brought to the state command headquarters.

He said, "The man is in our custody and as soon as we finish investigation we will let you know," he noted.
