A fatal auto crash yesterday in Sokoto killed a Senior Secondary (SS3) student of the Bafarawa Institute, Mafara, just as two others survived with injuries. The accident involving a Toyota Corolla car with registration number Sokoto WRN 39 AA, occurred at a bend around the Polytechnic of Sokoto, adjacent Sokoto State University School of Developmental Studies bill board. Both the deceased and survivors are SS3 students of the Bafarawa Institute. Speaking to LEADERSHIP Sunday, one of the survivors Ahmed Aliyu from Yauri, Kebbi State, said, he is deeply pained by the incident, especially at the discovery that his friend and the driver passed on. Ahmed said they were three in the vehicle before it suddenly veered into the pavement when the driver suddenly lost control. According to him, Mubarak, Musa and him were around Bado area of the metropolis when the deceased and driver of the accidented vehicle, Jafaru Buhari, called them to accompany him to see one of their friends.
