

Polls: Thugs Kill Civil Defence Officer, Others In A\lbom

As Nigerians await the outcome of the crucial 2015 presidential and National Assembly elections, the Police High Command in Uyo, the Akwa Ibom State capital, has urged law abiding citizens to remain calm in the face of the ongoing polls, assuring that "we are on top of the situation in the state".

① This followed the ugly incident at Nsit Ibom local government area where a member of the Nigerian Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) was killed by an angry mob, who overpowered him and beat him to death.
