Stella Oduah's Security Shoots 3 In Anambra

Segun Adeleye

— May 16, 2015 3:30 am | 0 Comments

The security personnel attached to a former Minister of Aviation, Princess Stella Oduah, allegedly shot three persons in Umuodu, Ochuiche in Ogbaru local government area of Anambra State on Friday.

Oduah was recently elected to the senate and would be sworn-in in June alongside the other 108 senators-elect.

Unconfirmed report said three people died as a result of the incident.

Apart from the three dead, there are several others who sustained injuries.

The State Police command confirmed the report.

The command however said no life was lost while only two people were wounded in the attack. Eyewitness accounts disputes the claims of the police.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Uche Ezech, a disclosed that the culprit had been arrested.

He was quick to add that the attack was carried out by a member of a vigilante group attached to Oduah's security, and not a policeman as widely reported.

The two persons injured in the attack – Chuka Okechukwu and Chukwuebuka, according to Ezech have been taken to Ogbaru general hospital for treatment.

He said the police acted on information received from the community, adding that investigations were still ongoing to unravel what caused the fracas.
