The police anti-crime fighters in Agbor, Boji Boji Owa, Ika North East Local Government Area of Delta state, have killed two notorious armed robbers and arrested two others in the areas.

It was gathered that the armed robbers have been terrorizing Agbor and its environs in the last one year and have allegedly killed several innocent persons before nemesis caught up with them.

The Divisional police officer in the area SP Lawrence Ogoegbulen who confirmed the police victory over the criminals, said the police anti-crime fighters engaged the robbers while they were operating along the Express way adding that the robbers responded unfortunately lost the battle.

It was learnt that the armed robbers were said to have been robbing motorists at gun point before the police crime fighters moved into the scene to save the situation.

He said that police arrested two of the robbers on the spot while two others escaped with serious bullet wounds, adding that the two suspects would be charged to court.

While urging vigilante group in the areas to redouble its efforts to assisting the police, SP Ogeogbulem vowed to eradicate crimes in the community, disclosing that the police recovered three cut to size guns and charms at the scene.
