ATTACK: Man, 65, Dies After Sex In Ondo

BY TOPE FAYEHUN, Akure

A 65-year-old man identified as Ayodele Joseph has reportedly slumped and died after sex with his lady friend in Akure, the state capital.

The incident was said to have happened at Odopetu area, the woman's residence.

According to the police report, the deceased was understood to have come to his concubine's house at Odopetu Street, Akure, on that fateful day where he reportedly had an affair with the woman in her room.

LEADERSHIP gathered that after the session, he suddenly slumped and died before medical assistance could reach him.

A police source said that one Sule Olufayo of Asewi Community, Idanre road, Akure reported at the police station on the fateful day at about 4pm, that he received a phone call from his mother who resides at Odopetu street, Akure, that her male friend, Ayodele Joseph, 65, had visited her and later slumped and died after an affair with her.

Confirming the incident, the Ondo state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Wole Ogodo, said detectives later visited scene and took photographs of the scene and removed the man's corpse.

The body of the deceased has since been deposited at the mortuary of the State Specialists' Hospital, Akure.
