Boko Haram Burns Down Mainok, Kills 30

BY KAREEM HARUNA,
Maiduguri

Reports from Mainok town in Kaga local government area of Borno State indicated that at least 30 persons were killed, and many others injured by rampaging Boko Haram terrorists, security sources said.

On Monday, Boko Haram

terrorists made yet another daring attack on Mainok, a town located about 65km away from Maiduguri, Borno State capital.

The attack lasted for about five hours as the gunmen took their time to ensure that no single edifice in the town was left untouched, even as more than 30 persons and travellers were said to have been killed during the attack.

Sources said many Boko Haram terrorists had, at about 5:30pm, stormed Mainok town and opened fire on civilians, killing at least 40 hapless civilians. More than 30 vehicles that were trapped near the town were also burnt down as well as hundreds of homes.
