Burning with the desire to rid-off Delta State of all forms of criminal activities, police detectives in Warri, on Tuesday arrested and paraded 32 suspected cultists. LEADERSHIP reliably gathered that the suspects were arrested at different locations in Warri metropolis, especially its environs where some weapons were recovered.

Only last week, the police in Asaba arrested and detained no fewer than 117 suspected cultists, a stride described by Delta indigenes as welcome development.

Speaking to our correspondent, the Police Commissioner in the state, CP Alkali Baba Usman, said that to achieve a crime free Delta state, his command has deployed 15 highway patrol vehicles allocated to the state command by the Inspector General of Police, Mr Solomon Arase.

Meanwhile, the police in Ughelli town during their routine duties on Tuesday killed three robbery suspects who reportedly had been robbing residents of the town.
