The Criminal investigation and Intelligence Department(CIID) of the Ondo State Police Command is investigating the cause of death of a middle aged woman, Florence Aladenoye, who was reported to have been bitten to death by a domestic dog.

According to a police source, the unfortunate incident was said to have occurred last week at Alade Idanre, in Idanre Local Government Area of the state.

It was learnt that the owner of the dog that allegedly killed the lady, Olafingbesote, has been arrested by the police.

LEADERSHIP investigation revealed that the victim was reportedly rushed to the Federal Medical Centre (FMC), Owo, where all attempts made by the medical personnel to save her life were abortive.

The incident was said to have been reported at the Alade Idanre Police outpost where the Divisional Officer (DO) led a team of homicide detectives to the scene of the incident and arrested the owner of the dog.

The source also told LEADERSHIP that on interrogation, the arrested suspect was said to have told the police that the dog belonged to her and that she did not immunize it.

Ondo State Police Public Relation Officer, Mr. Wole Ogodo said the victim was immediately rushed to the hospital shortly after the dog bite her, but was confirmed dead.
