

2 Feared Dead As Petrol Ignites When Motorcycles Collide

BY MATTHEW DIKE, Lagos

Two people were feared dead in Mile 12 area of Lagos State, while four others suffered burns when a gallon containing fuel ignited as two motorcycles collided, on Wednesday.

LEADERSHIP Friday gathered that a woman carrying a gallon containing fuel boarded a motorcycle and at Maiden Street, by Ajili area, the motorcycle collided with another, causing the gallon to ignite fire.

Four people including the woman and her rider suffered severe burns.

An eyewitness, Mufutau Adebayo disclosed that the woman and one of the riders were severely burnt and those around too. Adebayo alleged that he later heard from the grape vine that the woman and the rider did not survive the injury they sustained.

Customs Sieze Imported Indian Hemp