Tension has heightened in Amaja, a border town between Enugu and Benue states following the brutal murder of a man identified as Mr. Marel Abah and his wife Mrs. Jacintha Abah.

It was gathered that they were murdered by yet to be identified people at a about 2am while they were sleeping.

When contacted, the Police Public Relations Officer in Enugu, Ebere Amaraizu confirmed the ugly development, saying they victims were murdered when it was raining heavily.

He added that the suspects used Knife to cut the throats of their victims, leaving them in their pool of blood.

"Uneasy calm reign supreme as tragedy struck on 21/9/2015 at Amaja a border town between Enugu and Benue states and located in Igboeze North local government area of Enugu State as couple identified as Mr Marel Abah and his wife, Mrs. Jacintha Abah met their untimely deaths while sleeping in their room.

"It was gathered that on that fateful day, at about 2: am, under a heavy rainfall, men yet to be identified, had gained access into the house of the deceased persons located in an isolated axis of the town and slashed their throats with knife like sacrificial lambs and leaving them in their pools of blood. It was gathered that the couple bled seriously and as a result, gave up their ghosts before it could be noticed.
