The Controller general, Nigeria Immigration Service (NIS), Martin Kure Abeshi has revealed that they lost three officers in the last two weeks to Boko Had an attacks in the North _ East.

The NIS boss made the disclosure in Abuja while unravelling his blueprint for the agency as the new boss, saying President Muhammadu Buhari appointed him as CGI to fight corruption at the Passport offices, airports and other departments of the service.

The Immigration boss who acknowledged that the service had lost several other officers to insurgency prior to his appointment, said, if Mobilised, it will among other strategy ensure that the fences, surrounding these borders are electrified.

Speaking further on various issues of passport scam at the Nigeria Immigration Service (NIS), Abeshi warned that all erring officers will be sanctioned.

He said some of the Immigration officers extort money from the members of the public to produce passport for them.

LEADERSHIP findings revealed that an investigation is currently on-going about some of the officers and if found guilty serious action will be taken on them".

Abeshi said "the NIS now has a new Immigration Act 2015. The Act provides for penalties to be meted out to officers who abuse the passport process. If you do it you will be charged to court and if found guilty, imprisoned."
