A petroleum tanker over the weekend ran over no fewer than 11 houses and shops in Maje, Dikko, Suleja local government area of Niger State, killing one person and injuring 10 others.

LEADERSHIP gathered that the incident occurred in Maje, Dikko at about 5pm as the tanker lost control in a bid to dodge a car coming from the opposite direction.

An eyewitness narrated that though the tanker did not explode, the accident claimed the life of a 35-year-old woman, Zainab Maikose, who was in her room when the accident occurred, while 10 other persons were injured and receiving treatment.

The Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) in charge of Niger State command, Mr. Bala Elkana, confirmed to LEADERSHIP that a life was lost and several houses were destroyed in the accident.

Also speaking on the incident, the information officer of Suleja local government, Alhaji Jibrin Bisala, told LEADERSHIP that the chairman of the council, Alhaji Shuaibu Umar Abuja, had already visited the area and commiserated with the victims, ordering that indiscriminate parking of tankers along the area should be discontinued.
