Unidentified youths numbering over 20 yesterday stormed the headquarters of the Vehicle Inspection Office (VIO) in Kaduna and vandalised the office, and smashed vehicles parked within the premises.

One of the angry youths alleged that the VIO vehicle was responsible for the death of the teenage fuel blackmarketer.

The Deputy Director Operations, Alh Abdullahi Sambo speaking to newsmen on the matter said, "Around 9am today (Saturday) someone called me and told me that our office had been vandalised.

"I rushed to the office only to find about that three trucks of Operaton Yaki (security men) were already in our office.

"I went round to inspect our offices only to find out that all the windows and doors were destroyed. Also destroyed was two operational vehicles.

"The first thing we did was to report to the police. We want to say that our boys were not responsible for the death of the teenage blackmarketer.
