

Lagos Bank Robbery: 1 Dead, Police Release Pictures Of 4 Suspects

BY MATTHEW DIKE, Lagos

One person hit by bank robbers' bullets at Ipakodo, in Ikorodu area of Lagos State, on Wednesday has died on the way to the hospital.

LEADERSHIP gathered that a man who was going to work was hit by the robbers' bullets and unfortunately died on the way to the hospital.

A police sergeant attached to the Ipakodo police station, who spoke under the condition of anonymity disclosed that the man was rushed to a hospital but gave up the ghost on the way. He said the robbers also rained bullets at the station and at a patrol vehicle wounding an officer.

He described the over 10 armed robbers led by a woman as "deadly and wicked."

Meanwhile, LEADERSHIP gathered that Lagos State police command has released four pictures of the suspected armed robbers. The police have also promised to pay a whooping sum of N5million to anybody that would give information about the whereabouts of the robbers.

The darkest place is