

Unidentified Corpse Found In Yola Suburb

BY MOHAMMED ISMAIL, Yola

Residents of "Kofare A" on Thursday awoke to the shocking discovery of a yet to be identified corpse tucked up in a Toyota Camry within their vicinity.

Expressing shock at the discovery, ward head of "Kofare A", Abdullahi Idris, expressed shock noting that in the history of the community, this was the first time such an incident had ever occurred in the area.

The discovery of the corpse has sparked anxiety in the sleepy suburb of Yola as residents expressed fear over their safety.

"The corpse was found early in the morning around 6:44 am on Thursday and my attention was drawn to the sad discovery.

"I quickly informed the DPO, Kofare division, who drafted an anti-bomb team to ascertain that there was no bomb in the car.

"The corpse bore no physical injuries, making us to believe that the victim might have been strangled," the ward head said.

Confirming the incident, Public Relations Officer of Adamawa State Police Command, DSP Othman Abubakar, said investigations are still going on to unravel the mystery behind the death.

Lagos CP Showers Gifts To Orphanages, Indigent Homes