An Akure Chief Magistrates' Court has ordered the remand of one Idowu Ajewole, 38 in prison custody for allegedly killing one Monday Bassey over his lost chicken.

The accused was said to have killed the 28-year-old Bassey at about 3pm at Adebowale street, Oke-Aro, Akure on December 12, 2015.

According to the prosecution, the accused person and the victim were alleged to be flat mates who had disagreement over a theft of the chicken before he discovered its feathers among the deceased's belongings when he was packing out of the apartment.

The accused was said to have reported the matter to the police who came arrest the victim. In the process of the arrest, Ajewole was said to have pushed the deceased while trying to force him inside the police's van. The deceased was said to have hit his head on the floor and died as a result of an injury he sustained when he fell.

The police prosecutor, ASP Pelumi Adejuwon further told the court that the action of the accused was responsible for the death of the victim.

According to the prosecutor, the offence is contrary to and punishable under section 316 and 319 of the Criminal Code Cap 37 vol.1 Laws of Ondo state of Nigeria 2006.

Adejuwon prayed the court for adjournment of the case to enable him send the duplicate of the case file to the Director of Public Prosecution for legal advice.

He also urged the court to remand the accused person in prison custody, pending the outcome of the advice from the office of the DPP.
