

Horror: 2 Caught With Human Skull In Osun

Joshua Dada

— Feb 8, 2016 11:49 am | Leave a comment

Nemesis caught up with two men at the weekend in Iwo, the headquarters of Iwo local government of Osun state when they were allegedly caught with a human head.

Sources hinted that the suspects, Korede Ayofe and Jimo Bello, were apprehended in Owoyo area of the town by the police patrol team, acting on tip off.

It was further gathered that a sharp knife, hoe and a motorcycle were found on the suspects.

A security source told our correspondent that the head of the unidentifiable corpse the two men were caught with was already decomposing.

Also in Ikire, one Aminat Kazeem at the weekend was burnt to death, after she reportedly set her room on fire.

Sources in Maro area where the incident happened hinted that Aminat was allegedly having mental challenges.

They said her badly burnt body was eventually evacuated by the police.

Confirming the two incidents, the police public relation officer, (PPRO), of Osun State command of Nigeria Police Force, Folasade Oodoro, a deputy superintendent of police (DSP) said the command was investigating the incidents and will soon come out with its findings