The Police in Ughelli town in Delta State have shot dead two robbery suspects from two different gangs in Ughelli and Oghara, both in the state last Sunday, while two others escaped with bullet wounds.

A combined team of police operatives and Vigilante in Ughelli were said to have mobilized to Oteri bush in Ughelli following a tip off that three suspected armed men who had just concluded robbery operations were sighted at the bush.

According to a police statement, the hoodlums on sighting the combined team inside the Oteri bush, opened fire on them.

In the ensuing battle, one of the criminals was allegedly gunned down, while the other two members of the gang escaped with bullet wounds.

In the same vein, following a distress call that a Toyota Hiace bus was under attack by armed robbers along Sapele/Benin Road, Oghara, the DPO in-charge of the area swiftly dispatched a patrol team to the scene.

The statement released by the Police public relations officer, Delta State Command, Mrs. Celestina Kalu, explained that the hoodlums on sighting the patrol men engaged them in a shootout and in the process, one of the three bandits was gunned down, while the remaining two escaped.

One cut-to-size gun, one live and two expended cartridges were reportedly recovered from the bandits.

The commercial driver of the bus told the police that the hoodlums boarded the vehicle as passengers at Ring Road Benin City, Edo State enroute Warri, Delta State.

According to him, on getting to Koko Junction in Delta State, one of the hoodlums shot him on his left hand and took over his vehicle steering.
