

5 killed in bomb attack on another Borno village

Three operatives of the local vigilante force helping soldiers in the fight against Boko Haram were, Tuesday, killed by a bomb planted on the road by insurgents, officials said.

Two civilians from Huyum village in Askira Uba Local of Borno State were also killed in the ensuing shootout between vigilante operatives and ambushing members of the Boko Haram.

Spokesman of the Vigilante Group in Borno State, Abbas Gava, told journalists on phone that his colleagues were moving in a patrol vehicle when they stepped on the bomb in Huyum village.
