BY MOHAMMED ISMAIL, Yola

Adamawa State police command, in conjunction with the foremost crime buster, Alhaji Ali Kwara have in a joint operation rescued three people abducted by a notorious gang of kidnappers.

The joint operation also succeeded in killing three notorious armed robbers that have been terrorising parts of North-East and North-Western Nigeria and in the process, confiscated 8 AK 47 rifles, 1 RPG, 477 round of ammunitions as well as local and foreign currencies.

Displaying the confiscated weapons at Adamawa State police headquarters on Thursday, the public relations officer of the command, DSP Othman Abubakar said the feat of routing the notorious kidnap gang and the killing of the robbers was attained with the full cooperation of Ali Kwara.

He said that the two operations were carried out in Mulang in Song local government and Mayo Belwa local government of Adamawa State.

Othman noted that the Nigerian Police is working hand in hand with other sister organisations to weed the society of criminals, urging members of the communities to assist the police with relevant information that will assist in curtailing crime and criminality.
