TRAGIC: Woman Collapses After Son Is Crushed To Death In Delta

BY KOLA EKE-OGIUGO, Asaba

Doctors in Ekpan General Hospital, Effurun, Delta State, are battling to save the life of a mother simply identified as Mrs. Oboh whose son was crushed to death in Warri in an accident that involved a female driver, who lost control of her car in Warri.

According to reports, the mother fainted and was rushed to the hospital when she heard that her son was killed in the unfortunate accident that involved three other students.

It would be recalled that one of the male students involved in the accident, died on the spot while the remaining three and the driver of the car who were in critical condition were rushed to the Central Hospital Warri.

This followed the accident that occurred at about 2pm on Thursday March 17, 2016, opposite the Federal Government College, Ogunu Road, Warri involving a female driver of a Sienna LE Jeep with Reg. no. Delta AG 863 BMA.

Our correspondent reports that the other two students involved in the accident were later confirmed dead by the principal of the school, while the only survivor, Michael Matthew who was referred from the General Hospital Warri to the University of Benin Teaching Hospital (UBTH), Benin City, Edo State has recovered.
