

"People no longer feel safe boarding okada these days. The Police should put more effort in putting an end to this evil acts by most bike riders who want to make quick money by taking the lives of people that they did not create. That was how they found one headless and breastless body along Dutse express before Usman dam and we were told that Okada rider was also connected to it," she said.