A suspected kidnapper, Henry Ajie, aged 23, who is currently in Police custody for killing Mrs Igila Sunday at Ohigha community in Ogba/Egbema/Ndoni local government area of Rivers State, has said they killed their victim after collecting N200,000 ransom because of the insistence of her son-in-law.

Ajie, stated this to newsmen after being paraded alongside other suspected criminals at the Rivers State Police Commission, the command's headquarters, at Moscow Road, Port Harcourt, yesterday. He said the son-in-law who arranged her kidnapping was paid some money.

Henry, alongside, Bright Ajie, 22, Dandison Ogadinma, 22, and Sampson Dibia, 30 years, were said to have raped and strangulated her to death and then buried her in a shallow grave on January 7, this year after collecting the ransom.
