

Father of Slained 22-year-old Seeks Justice

KOLA EKE-OGIUGO, Asaba

Life has not been the same again since the murder of his 22-year-old son, Mr. Samson Izah, on April 14, 2016 in a mysterious circumstance in Warri, the oil city of Delta State by yet to be identified persons.

Mr. Christopher Izah, (the father of the victim) is a native of Onicha-Ukwuani, Ndokwa West local government area, but resides in Ibusa, Oshimili North council area both in Delta State.

The victim's father while narrating his ordeal to our reporter, said life has treated him badly and life can never be the same again. The family is totally down and it is like the whole world is against the family for no just cause and no crime of theirs.

According to him, in a petition he sent to the commissioner of Police, Delta State, the bereaved father said on the above date, he received phone call from one Ifeanyi Anie London, saying that someone went to my son's shop at the Spare Parts Market, Warri to buy goods and after the said transaction, the customers left with the victim in his 'End of Discussion Honda Car' with registration number Kpp521PJ.

The victim father further said in the petition to the police, the said customer, after a short while, called the said Ifeanyi Anie, saying that armed robbers blocked Estate road and shot my son to death.

He said in the petition that the said Ifeanyi Anie was the one who deposited the corpse of the deceased in a mortuary at the Central Hospital, Warri, without his consent, the father.
