2 Supporters Of Akwa United Killed, 23 Others Injured In Auto Crash

BY KAUTHAR ANUMBA-KHALEEL,
Abuja

Two Supporters of Akwa United Football Club were yesterday feared dead while many others sustained different degrees of injuries at Ekparakwa Junction, in Oruk Anam Local Government, Akwa Ibom State, in an auto crash involving a Toyota Coaster Bus.

The Akwa United supporters club, who were inside a Toyota Coaster bus with Akwa Ibom state registration number 02A-138AK, were said to be travelling to Port Harcourt, the Rivers State capital, to cheer their players who were billed to play with Enyinba Fc of Aba at the liberation stadium when the coaster bus somersaulted along the way at Ekparakwa junction.

An unconfirmed report said two of the supporters died instantly while others that sustained varying degrees of injuries were rushed to the hospital.

An eyewitness attributed the cause of the accident to high speed and break failure.

He said the driver lost control of the vehicle at the Ekparakwa junction while negotiating a curve bend along the road and it resulted into the fatal accident.

When contacted, the Akwa Ibom State Public Relations Officer, Federal Road Safety Commission, Godsgift Uwen, confirmed the death of one person.
