

Kuje Chairman Condemns Killing Of Motorcyclist

BY CECILIA OGEZI

Kuje council chairman, Abdullahi Galadima has condemned the killing of a motorcyclist, Isah Aji, popularly called 'Okada'.

Galadima, who made this known in a statement after receiving reports of the attack, also reinstated his administration's commitment to work with police and other security agencies to clamp down on criminals that specialize in attacking motorists in Kuje.

LEADERSHIP gathered that the victim was lured by his attackers to the scene of the incident at Jeremiah Hussani Mini Stadium within the area, through a phone call where he was killed by unidentified gunmen who made away with his motorcycle.

There have been reports recently of robbery and attacks in the area, just as residents have been called upon to be at the alert to help secure lives and property.
