Three youths suspected to political thugs were on Saturday killed at Ogbakiri Community in Emohua local government area of the state.

LEADERSHIP gathered that the incident occurred during a clash between thugs hired by two leading political parties in the community.

The Rivers State Police Command is yet to react to the ugly development.

Meanwhile, low turnout of voters on Saturday greeted the Governorship and House of Assembly election in parts of Rivers State.

Assembly, which several residents of the state alleged was rigged in favour of a particular political party.
