

Culpable Homicide: Police Arrest 2 For Killing Pregnant Woman

BY ABDULLAHI YAKUBU, Kano

Kano State Police Command said a 20-year-old pregnant woman, Theresa Yakubu, was found dead by the roadside in Anadariya Village, Bebeji local government area.

The public relations officer of the command Abdullahi Haruna Kiyawa stated this when he paraded two suspects before journalists in Kano in connection with the incident.

He said, "On March 28, 2023 at about 1630hrs, a report was received that a lady was seen lying on the ground motionless by the roadside at Anadariya Village, Bebeji local government area, along Kano-Jos Road, Kano State.

"The team immediately rushed to the scene and moved the body to Tiga General Hospital where a medical doctor confirmed her dead.

"Preliminary investigation revealed the identity of the deceased as Theresa Yakubu, 'f', 20 years old with a two-month-old pregnancy, of Anadariya Village, Bebeji LGA.

"It also led to the arrest of her boyfriend, one Philibus Ibrahim, 'm', 20 years old of Unguwar Korau Quarters, Tudun Wada LGA and his friend, one Gabriel Bila, 'm', 25 years old, of the same address. On investigation, Philibus confessed that he impregnated the girlfriend two months ago, and all efforts to abort the pregnancy proved abortive."

The police investigated the incident and arrested her boyfriend, Philibus Ibrahim, and his friend, Gabriel Bila, both residents of Tudun Wada LGA.
