A traditional ruler, Pa David Obadofin of Aghara in Kabba-Bunu local government area of Kogi State has been kidnapped by suspected gunmen.

The gunmen on Monday, April 10, 2023, also abducted one other person along with the traditional ruler and killed a woman identified as Madam Toyin Onare.

LEADERSHIP gathered that Obadofin, a major cashew farmer, and one of his boys were seated in front of his house when a staccato of gunshots jolted them. This later threw the village into confusion.

Toyin, a widow who had gone to lend a hand on the farm was hit by a bullet. Promptly, the gunmen whisked the traditional ruler and Temidayo away, abandoning the poor widow in the pool of her blood. One person however escaped, to tell the story.

Toyin was rushed to the hospital in Kabba, the headquarters of the LGA, about 35 minutes' drive away. Unfortunately, she was confirmed dead on arrival.
