

17-year-old Student Kills Phone Dealer In Katsina

BY GODWIN ENNA, Katsina

A 17-year-old senior secondary student in Katsina State, Abdulrahman Ibrahim has stabbed a phone dealer to death and snatched his phone.

The suspect, Ibrahim was among 74 suspects arrested and paraded by the Katsina State police command for various offences.

According to the police, the teenager, Ibrahim, of Kofar Sauri Quarters, Katsina, was arrested on April 21, 2023, after he lured a phone dealer to Modoji area of the town where he attacked and stabbed him with a knife on his neck.

But the suspect confessed to journalists that he killed the victim in self-defence.

"I killed him when he wanted to kill me and wounded me in the hand," he said in Hausa language.

The police spokesman, CSP Gambo Isah, said all the suspects were arrested during recent police raids of some black spots in different parts of the state.

He said, "The command has carried out raids in several locations within the Katsina metropolitan area, which include Sabuwar Unguwar; Gadar Nayali, Modoji, Tundun Yanlihidda'Kwabren Dorawa, Janbango, Abbatuwa, Filin Canada, Lambun Dan Lawai, Kofar Marusa, Tsalawa, Chake and Tunas (Ingawa local government area), among others, and succeeded in arresting 74 suspects."
