

Police Arrest Man For Killing Wife In Adamawa

BY HUSSAINI

HAMMANGABDO, Yola

The Adamawa State police command has arrested a 56-year-old Aminu Abubakar for killing his wife in the state.

Abubakar, a resident of Lelewaji, Shagari Phase 2 in Yola, Yola-South allegedly beat his estranged wife, Nana Fadimatu to death, after realising her plan to marry another person.

Abubakar was alleged to have divorced the deceased twice and provided accommodation for her, pending settlement of the divorce.

But before they could settle, the deceased planned to marry another man which angered Abubakar leading to the violence.

The police said, "The suspect Aminu Abubakar, a resident of Lelewaji, Shagari phase 2, in Yola South Local Government Area subjected the deceased Nana Fadimatu to a beating following a little disagreement that ensued between them when he heard that the deceased was going to marry a new husband the next day.

"Angered by that information, the suspect furiously engaged her on 5/5/2023 at about 10pm, applied force on her by hitting her with hard object as a result of which she fell down unconscious and was later announced dead."