

Oyo Assembly Condemns Killing Of Residents By Customs

BY ADEBAYO WAHEED,
Ibadan

Oyo State House of Assembly has condemned the killing of innocent resident by the personnel of the Nigeria Customs Service (NCS) in Oyo State.

The House, which warned against the persistent killing of innocent citizens, directed the seven-man committee on security to inquire about the frequent killing of residents of border communities in the state.

This followed an urgent public importance sponsored by a lawmaker representing Iwajowa, Hon. Anthony Ogunsola and seconded by lawmaker representing Ibadan South West 1 and deputy chief whip, Hon. Yusuf Adebisi, on need to investigate persistent extra-judicial killing of innocent persons in the state by the Nigeria Customs Service.

One Mr Olanrewaju Quadri was killed by a stray bullet, while two others, Alaba Oluwatomi and Joshua Ikeade Dada, were injured last Thursday at Iwere Ile, Iwajowa local government area of the state.

The House made a resolution by committing an Adhoc Committee on Security in the House chaired by the chief whip and a member representing Atiba Constituency, Hon. Gbenga Oyekola to liaise with the authority of the Nigeria Customs Service to discuss ways to check such killings while a condolence visit be made to the families of the victims.
