A High Court sitting in Ganye, Adamawa State has convicted and jailed Keke-NAPEP rider, Nuhu Pius to 21 years imprisonment for murder.

Pius was sentenced for killing Gabriel Solomon, during a free for all fight at a tea joint in Trigali village, Ganye local government area of the state.

Justice Maxwell Pukuma said the court tried and found Pius guilty on one count charge of "culpable homicide."

Delivering his judgement, Pukuma declared that the sentence will start running from the day of the convict's remand, and that the sentence is without an option of fine.

The convict, Nuhu, was arraigned before the court on 14th April, 2022 where he pleaded not guilty to the alleged offence.

The prosecution told the court that the convict had engaged in a fight with Wari, and in the course of it, the deceased who was trying to separate them, hit the convict with a stick on his head.
